ARTS BANQUET SHOULD PROVE GREAT EVENT

At Ritz-Carlton Grill Room, Tuesday, 22nd, 7.30 p.m.

FINE PROGRAMME.

Prof. Stephen Leacock, Le Baron's Orchestra, Jimmie Rice and Toasts.

For the benefit of those who are too busy to read the whole of this item, the main facts to be noted in connection with the Arts Banquet are the following:

Place—The Ritz Grill Room.

Time—7.30

Date—Tuesday, March 22nd.

If, however, time is taken to peruse the rest of the write-up, those who have already made up their mind to go will find out all the good things in store for them, while those who have not already taken this step will undoubtedly be induced to do so. For, in accordance with the president's wish that a right jolly time be prepared for the 22nd, plans were laid by the executive with this aim in view.

First of all the attractions we must note Professor Stephen Leacock, who will be the chief speaker of the evening. Anyone, even the veriest newcomer to McGill, will know that his name is sufficient guarantee that this part of the programme will be in keeping with the executive's desire for a jolly time. Acting-Dean Harkness will also give a speech, which will undoubtedly be interesting.

Then a three-piece orchestra, headed by the famous "Chub" Le Baron, will provide the musical programme. No further comment is really needed on this feature of the evening, for the music furnished by "Chub" and his henchmen is well known around the Campus.

The toast list is interesting, too. It is short and to the point, while the names of the proposers and seconders would seem to point in the direction of interesting discourses. The following are those which will be given:

The King—By the President.

Our Alma Mater—R. Hall, E. C. Amaron.

Faculty of Arts—Dr. Sullivan, Dr. MacMillan.

The Staff—S. D. Pierce, Professor Mathews.

Graduating Class—C. W. Branch, E. C. Common.

And last but not least in the list of attractions is the well-known and ever-popular Jimmie Rice, who will be on hand with his amusing and entertaining line of stories and recitations.

It is possible that one of the items mentioned above would not prove a sufficient inducement to attend the banquet. But all together, speeches, music, toasts and entertainment, and then finally the moral obligation that you owe to your faculty, which the banquet gives you a chance to demonstrate, should certainly constrain you to put in an appearance. This is the first large dinner held by the faculty since the war, and the

ELECTIONS FOR TOWNSHIPS CLUB

In the Union At 5 p.m. To-Day.

Because of an unfortunate omission in Friday's "Daily," the general meeting of the Eastern Townships Club that was to be held on that day was poorly attended. As a result, it was postponed until this afternoon at five o'clock.

The meeting will be held in the reading room of the Union, and every member is particularly requested to be present if possible. Officers for next year will be elected, the report of the Employment Committee will be read, arrangements will be made for such work as requires attention during the summer months.

The club has had a satisfactory year, and the concluding meeting should be well attended. The retiring executive has its report to make and several suggestions to submit; it is desirable that the whole club pronounce upon these plans, so the new executive, which takes office April 2nd, may have definite information to act upon.

"WHITES" WIN CHAMPIONSHIP FOR THIS YEAR

Indoor Baseball Team Has Successful Season.

"REDS" VICTORIOUS.

Macdonald Downed By Big Score of 42-24 Last Saturday.

On Saturday McGill received the large silver cup, emblematic of the championship of the City and District Indoor Baseball League, which was won this year by the McGill "Whites."

The game between the "Reds" and the Macdonald students was rather one-sided, as the score would indicate. Three pitchers were used during the engagement by the enemy, but were unable to stop the heavy batteries of the "Reds," who have their namesakes over in Russia beaten a mile when it comes to making a hit.

Cockshutt pitched air-tight ball for McGill and had all kinds of speed and was continually putting one over on somebody throughout the game. Wallace came through with a sensational catch in the fifth, and was keeping his hand in for the football season by making diving tackles for the bases. Anglin, Bussiere and McLaughlin were mainly responsible for the high score, each getting about a dozen safe hits with about as many runs. Great credit is due to the "Reds" skipper, Jerry Anglin, who has caught excellent ball and has led his team very successfully throughout the season.

For Macdonald, Major provided the best of the numerous varieties of pitching offered, and if given better support would most likely have kept the score lower. Ness and Vanterpol proved to be the best of their sluggers, but were given little opportunity to show their wares.

Ted Clarke, of hockey fame, refereed the game, and as an umpire he makes a better goalkeeper.

The line-up was as follows:

McGill Reds	McDonald
Anglin	Ness
Cockshutt	Major
Henry	McDonald
White	Skinner
McLaughlin	Laurie
Wallace	Scanlan
Bussiere	Vanterpol
Burke	Richardson

EVERYONE BE ON HAND FOR WED. EVENING

Three Plays Will Provide Irresistible Attraction

AT R. V. C.

Players Now Making Final Preparations For Big Performance.

At last the stage is set. When the curtain goes up at 8.15 on Wednesday night the audience will have an opportunity to judge of the measure of success obtained by the Players' Club since its formation a short time ago. The last two weeks have meant some hard work for the members taking part in the performance, especially since many of them were attending at the same time rehearsals for the R. V. C. Gymnasium Demonstration, but the result attained has fully justified the effort.

The dress rehearsal, which will take place this afternoon and evening, will give the players some chance of seeing just how things will go "on the night," besides adding the finishing touches to the presentation.

It is not the aim of the Players' Club to attempt anything like an elaborate setting of the pieces to be presented. Such a project would mean an expenditure that, under the circumstances, would be unjustified, and, in any case, with the facilities obtainable at present could hardly be a success. No pains are being spared, however, to make the acting as finished as possible. The coaching, which has been in the hands of Dr. Macmillan and Mr. Taylor, has been undertaken with a great deal of care and thoroughness, and if the actors are not of professional calibre they will at least compare with the best amateurs.

The first play to be staged will be "The Neighbours," by Zona Gale; this will be followed by "The Bracelet," by Alfred Sutro, which will afford the audience a scene of considerable intensity. The performance will be closed with "The Wonder Hat," by Ben Hecht and Kenneth Goodman. It would be unfair to performers and spectators alike to attempt here anything like a comparison of the pieces. Suffice it to say that they present a wide range of interest and some decided contrasts. They were chosen after much deliberation from among a collection of over fifty of the best modern "playlets" by English and American writers, and represent the work of the most successful playwrights on both sides of the Atlantic.

Owing to an unexpected delay, the tickets could not be placed on sale last week, but all will be out to-day. Prices are 50c. and 75c., the higher price being charged for a block of three hundred seats in the centre of the hall. Efforts will be made to have everyone who attends get a good view of the stage, but prudence advises "Buy a centre seat and buy it early."

Music will be provided by the Students' Orchestra, which will play the following selections:—

ECON. DISCUSSION AND ELECTIONS

Economists Will Gather For Last Time This Evening.

The Economists of McGill will have to-night their last opportunity of the current session of meeting together in discussion. This final gathering will take place in the smoking room of the Arts Building, and is called to commence at eight-fifteen. G. M. Webster will read a paper on "Canadian Labor and the Reconstruction Period." Such a topic should interest any student, and should bring all those taking a course in Economics flocking to Room 14. The speaker of the evening has spent considerable time and labor in the preparation of his subject, which, we may be sure, will be handled in a comprehensive fashion.

Immediately following the reading of the above paper, election of the executive for the coming year will be held. This also is a matter which no member of the club can afford to ignore, as an efficient executive body is essential to the future welfare of the Political Economy Club at Mc-

McGill Daily

THE ONLY COLLEGE DAILY IN CANADA.

The Official Organ of the Students' Society of McGill University.

MONDAY, MARCH 21, 1921.

ENVOI

With the appearance of this issue the "Daily" will cease publication for the session. A cruel destiny forbids the undergraduate to look further ahead into the future than the period of the next examinations, and so with the setting up in print of No. 126 of this volume it is time even for the members of the "Daily" Staff to turn from the paste-pot and the typewriter to the unwilling perusal of dusty text-books and borrowed lecture-notes in an effort to satisfy, or rather to deceive, the quite ungovernable curiosity of the Powers-that-Be.

These columns have been filled for the past week or so with notices of final meetings of the many clubs, whose aims embrace every possible sphere of our undergraduate activity. It is the period of stock-taking and the balancing of books. Through the natural optimism of secretaries' reports and the cheery exhortations of retiring presidents one fact stands out pre-eminently. The present year has not been marked by exceptional activity or by any astounding achievements. It has not been what has sometimes been called an "epoch-making" year in the field of undergraduate activity. But this condition should by no means be taken as a ground for self-disparagement, for it has been a normal year, a healthy year, a year of unmistakable promise notwithstanding.

As far as those athletics are concerned, which absorb such a great deal of the interest of the undergraduate, the state of affairs may best be summed up in the words of the retiring president of the Athletic Association: "This year we won the Track, Tennis, Swimming, Water Polo and Ski-ing Championships. Although this is not our usual number of championships, it by no means reflects on the ability of our teams, for this year we have had more men engaged in athletics at the University than ever before." There is a wealth of satisfaction to be derived from the concluding sentence of this speech, for the essential value of athletics lies in the individual enthusiasm with which they are pursued, and not in the increase in the amount of pewter-ware at present on the shelves of the Union.

Generally speaking the present session has been one of anticipation and of preparation for the period to come, when McGill will embark upon the second century of her existence. For the past few months at any rate the preparations for the Centennial Celebrations and the Graduates' Reunion have overshadowed all else. The University under a new regime and full of a justifiable hope in the future has been husbanding all her available resources in readiness for the plunge into the unknown. No man can foresee the destiny that the next hundred years holds for this University. Granted the guidance of earnest and far-seeing men we can only hope that it will one day measure up to the ideal of all that a great seat of learning should be. More we cannot ask.

As the University draws near the end of this first great lap in her existence the official undergraduate newspaper has finished its first decade. Next year it too will start out upon a new lease of life. From among the recommendations that have been made in the editorial columns of the "Daily" during the past year there are a few which we consider worthy of special emphasis in this last edition. Whether the University can afford at the present time to construct dormitories and a properly-equipped gymnasium we cannot tell, yet would we again stress their prime importance in the undergraduate life of the rejuvenated University that we hope for in the future. Another matter is the question of the creation of a Faculty of Commerce, separate and distinct from the Arts Faculty, and located in a separate building. This matter is no less urgent than the former ones, and there are apparently no considerations of a financial nature which might impede its immediate execution. Thirdly, and lastly, there is the question of the one-eighth attendance rule. More than enough has already been written on this subject. Is there any likelihood of the authorities ever taking the amelioration of this most incongruous state of affairs into serious consideration?

And so the curtain falls upon a year's work. When it rises again for the "Daily" it will be upon a new decade, and for the University a new century, with her graduates gathered around her from every quarter of the globe to celebrate the triumph and the aspirations of a Greater McGill.

YEARBOOK WILL BE OUT APRIL 1ST

Plan of Distribution to Subscribers Decided On.

As this is the last opportunity for announcements through the "Daily" with regard to the publication of the Yearbook, the Managing Board wish to notify those who have subscribed to the Yearbook that the method of distribution, when the book is available, will be as follows:

Copies will be issued to faculties, in turn, on two consecutive days. On the first day, distribution will be made from the Union to Arts and Commerce, and on the second day to Medicine, Dentistry and Law. The distribution for Science and R.V.C. will be made from their respective buildings. The representatives on the Yearbook Board from the various faculties will be on hand to issue the book and identify the applicants. The issue from the Union will be made from one of the cloakrooms in the vestibule if arrangements can be made.

A notice will be posted in the various Faculty Buildings prior to the disposal of the books, confirming these arrangements.

The work of printing the book is well under weigh. The copy is now complete, and most of the engravings already made. The first form has been set up by the printer, and if everything goes according to plan, the book will be available for issue on the proposed date, i.e., April 1st.

The Yearbook Management wish to take this opportunity of thanking the staff of the "Daily" for their kind assistance and co-operation throughout the term both with regard to executive desire to make it a big success in order to ensure the continuance of the affair in the future. They have done their utmost in preparing a varied and interesting programme and in reducing the price of the affair to what is practically a nominal sum for such an event, it being only two dollars, a price well within reach of all. The tickets may be obtained from the various class representatives, who have them in hand. All who intend going are earnestly requested to purchase their tickets without delay, so that the executive may know the exact number which will be present. To-morrow morning is the latest time by which they must have this information; so act quickly, Arts men, and get hold of your tickets to-day.

FAREWELL DINNER, MARCH 29th.

The Commercial Society has postponed the farewell dinner to Tuesday, March 29th. This was put first lest this article suffer the fate of similar ones and be left unread after the first lines. Owing to the fact that at least half of the enrolment of the society had already made plans to spend the week-end in Vancouver, or Coe Hill, or Boheygeon, or Ottawa, or somewhere, this was deemed the most advisable thing to do.

INTER-SCHOLASTIC MEET.

A novel, and what promises to be a very interesting, departure will be taken by the McGill Track Club this June, when it will hold an Inter-Scholastic Track Meet, open to any schools in Canada, though it is expected that mainly Montreal schools will take part.

MARITIMERS WILL HOLD THE DANSANT

New Departure By a Sectional Club.

DATE: MARCH 26.

Hoped That Men From East Will Turn Out in Large Numbers.

Attention, Maritimers! It has been a long time since the bunch from "Down East" has gathered together. But cheer up! The executive of the Maritime Club has arranged for next Saturday afternoon an event unique in the history of sectional clubs at McGill—a The Dansant at Ciro's.

To those who have taken advantage of the privileges of Ciro's extended to McGill students this year, there is no need to mention the general excellence of the floor, the music and the refreshments. To those who have not yet availed themselves of these privileges, we would say, "come and see." A large and comfortable sitting-out room has been reserved especially for the club, and the dancing floor will provide ample accommodation for the large gathering which, it is hoped, will be present.

Mrs. Cyrus Macmillan has consented to grace the occasion with her presence, and everything points to a most successful afternoon.

The executive has decided to leave the matter of a general meeting for election of officers, etc., over till next year, in order to give the new men a voice in the management of the Maritime Club. Therefore, next Saturday afternoon will see the last gathering of the club until autumn.

Cocoanuts are a native of Florida but originally came from a boat wrecked on the coast years ago.

WESTERN CLUB HOLD ANNUAL MEET TO-NIGHT

Election of Officers For Next Year Main Business.

REFRESHMENTS AFTER.

Large Attendance Requested For Final Meeting of This Session.

To-night, at 8.15, the Western Club is holding its annual meeting in the Union. The executive report that everything is in readiness for both a businesslike and pleasurable evening, and that everyone attending should enjoy himself to the utmost.

The Cafeteria management states that they have on hand refreshments sufficient to satisfy the whole of the company and also the most fastidious tastes. Any remarks as to the quality of the same refreshments are naturally unnecessary when one considers their origin.

The club executive, in placing the election of the new officers before the refreshments, showed, we would say, remarkable sagacity and evidently profound belief in the old axiom of "work before pleasure," but at that, the delay should only serve, as the cocktail did in the good old days, as an appetizer.

Everyman's Problem

"If I save the same amount during the next ten years of my life that I have saved during the past ten years, how much will I be worth?" What will be the answer in your own case? Are you proud or ashamed of your Bank Account? It is better to say "I'm glad I saved" than "I wish I had." No man ever retired on the money he spent.

OLD SCOUTS CONCLUDED FINE YEAR

Finished Successful Season
Last Saturday Night.

OFFICERS ELECTED.

Six Members of Executive
For 1920-'21 Elected For Next Session.

The Old Scouts' Club of McGill University held their second annual meeting at 7 p.m., Saturday, March 19th, in the Union grill room, after having partaken of one of the very excellent suppers supplied by the management of the Cafeteria. Practically all members were present, and after a very successful meeting, the club adjourned in a body to the Princess Theatre.

The main business of the evening was committee reports and the election of officers for the ensuing year. Mention was made of the very successful social events held by the club during the year just completed, viz., the Reunion Dinner in October, at which Prof. Stiles, Asst. Dominion Scout Commissioner for Canada, was the guest of honor; and the Club Smoker in December, on the anniversary of the club's inception. This latter, in particular, surpassed in every way the optimistic hopes that had been held in regard to the entertainment. The guest of honor was Sir Arthur Currie, Principal of the University.

Mr. P. R. Lyman, Scoutmaster of the 11th (McGill) Troop, thanked the club for valuable assistance rendered to the Troop during the past winter. The following officers were elected for the coming year:

Hon. President—Prof. N. N. Evans. Re-elected.

President—Errol C. Amaron. Re-elected by acclamation.

Vice-President—Jacques L. Bieler. Re-elected.

Secretary—Edward T. Harbert.

Treasurer—Allan B. Strong. Re-elected by acclamation.

Executive Members—Morey F. MacNaughton (re-elected), George B. Blinmore (re-elected), C. R. Whittemore.

Overture—"Jolly Fellows."

"O Canada."

"O Sole Mio."

"La Mousme."

"On the Mesa Grande."

"The Herd Girl's Dream."

"Hail, Alma Mater."

"God Save the King."

"The Great Divide"—Exit March.

As the curtain will rise sharp at a quarter past eight, all spectators are requested to come on time. For the benefit of those who may have missed previous announcements, it may be stated that the performance is to take place in the Convocation Hall of the Royal Victoria College. Wednesday night is primarily for the students, but any member of the staff or friends of the University who care to come, or who are unable to be present on Thursday, will be welcomed. It is to be hoped that in view of the reduction in prices over the usual performance of this sort, a large proportion of the student body will take advantage of the opportunity and enjoy a "top-hole" evening of entertainment in congenial surroundings.

Proceeds that remain after the payment of expenses will be devoted to the procuring of curtains, scenery and other requisites. It is felt that each play presented by the club should mean a definite advance, not only in the proficiency of the actors, but in the completeness of the staging, and while there is no intention of launching out into a programme of reckless spending, there are countless ways in which the money obtained may be spent to good advantage and to the benefit of the University as a whole.

The committees in charge of various departments are as follows:

Cast Committee—Miss D. Barnes and S. Pierce.

Stage Committee—Miss E. Cox, R. Hall and R. C. Harris.

Printing Committee—Miss A. Hackett and T. Bullock.

Costume Committee—Miss Grieg, Miss James, Miss Freedman and F. Walter.

ANNUAL DINNER AT UNION.

With the closing edition of the "Daily," the Executive Committee of the Newfoundland Club wishes to remind every student who hails from "Terra Nova" to keep before him the fact that the closing meeting and annual dinner, to be held on the 31st inst., has every promise of the best function the Club has yet experienced.

BRANDON BEAT VARSITY.

Brandon furnished a big surprise to hockey fans in the East when they meted out a 2-0 defeat to their Eastern rivals, the Varsity sextette, on Saturday night.
